July 20, 2018

Dear Friends,

The two months since Silas's birth have been an absolute whirlwind, and I apologize for not getting an update out sooner. Alyssa and Silas have both recovered well and our family is adjusting well to having a newborn in our midst. He is well loved around here!

Last month I had the privilege of spending a week in Michigan to take part in a preacher's conference. Alyssa's mom was so gracious to come and stay with her and the kids during that time. Her help was invaluable!

It was around this time that the Lord really began to impress on my heart the need that my family had for more stability on the road as we traveled. Of course, adding a third child, and a new born at that, would make for a unique traveling experience. We began to pray about a motorhome to travel in and God so graciously provided exactly what we were looking for! Chloe likes to call it our "little house" so I'm sure we will be chronicling many "Little House on the Highway" adventures.

During our time home, we also decided to go ahead and put our house up for sale. Purchasing the RV gave us another place to stay during this process of cleaning, packing, and showing the house. It's been a busy time! We are still in the process of all this so please pray that we could have a buyer before we leave in a couple of weeks. That would be a huge blessing!

We were blessed to be able to be home for our church's 40th anniversary. What a privilege to see how God has worked over many years to use LVBC for His glory. We are excited to be a part of that work. The rest of our Sundays have been full visiting churches in the surrounding areas on the weekends. This has allowed us to slowly transition as a family of five.

Now we are preparing to start traveling again full time. We will leave July 28th and will be traveling for FIVE months! Our travels will include the states of Texas, Ohio, Oklahoma, North Dakota, Missouri, and many more! It will be a full schedule. Please be in prayer for us as there is a lot of preparation that goes into a trip like this.

We are so thankful to the Lord for all He has allowed us to accomplish during this time at home. It went by very quickly! But we are excited to move forward with raising support so that we can get to the field where God has called us. As time goes on, our burden grows. We look forward to what God will do over these next five months. Thank you for praying for us! We don't take God's protection for granted.

As you pray this month, please specifically pray for:

1) A smooth transition to full time travel. 2) Support to be raised quickly 3) Safety on the road.

Rejoicing in the Lord,

Benjamin Hall
